Parties

- QONECO PTY LTD ACN 626 108 745 of Suite 11, Level 5, 23-35 Buckingham Street, Surry Hills NSW 2010, ('QONECO', 'we', 'us', 'our').
- The Client;

Recitals

- a) The Client desires to deal in Gold Bullion offered by QONECO.
- b) QONECO offers to buy and sell Gold Bullion to the public and in connection with that offering also provides delivery and storage services for the Gold Bullion

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and conditions as provided in this Client Agreement ('Agreement'), the Parties agree as follows.

1. The gold bullion

- a) The Parties will deal in investment grade, minted Gold Bullion bars and coins of a purity of at least 995 thousandths. A list of available bar and coin sizes for purchase is available on the Qoneco Website. This is subject to change from time to time by notice on the Qoneco Website.
- b) If a Client resides outside Australia, the Client may only deal in Pool Allocated Gold Bullion. With Pool Allocated Gold Bullion storage formats, QONECO may determine the size of the gold bar or coin to be used for each transaction, as appropriate to the weight of gold ordered by the Client. For Allocated Gold Bullion storage, the Client will have specified bars or coins stored for them.
- c) All purchases come with an electronic Gold Certificate, issued by QONECO over email. The Gold Certificate indicates the weight, individual bar or coin numbers and the origin of the gold (if applicable).
- d) It is your sole responsibility to keep this certificate in a secure place and keep the unique Gold Certificate number and your Account identification number confidential.
- e) Where ownership to your Gold Bullion holding changes, the details on your Gold Certificate will no longer match QONECO's updated internal records and the new holder of the Gold Certificate will be recognised as the owner of the Gold Bullion in QONECO's records. Gold Bullion holdings must be transferred in whole, corresponding to the weight on the Gold Certificate.
- f) We reserve the right to source Gold Bullion from various third party suppliers.

2. Account set up

- a) Before you can make use of the Online Service, you will have to open an Account through our website www.qoneco.com. When opening an Account, you must strictly follow our stipulated procedures.
- b) We reserve the right to reject any application for an Account without having to give reasons.
- c) In order to make use of the Online Service, you must have a bank account held in your name and address at a recognised banking institution, from which you shall settle Gold Bullion order invoices. You must provide the information set out in Schedule 1 to us as part of the Account set up process and any other information requested by us as determined in our absolute discretion.
- d) You are fully responsible for checking the information we hold with regard to your bank account and must immediately notify us of any incorrect and/or incomplete information, prior to entering into each transaction. If you do not do this in a timely manner, then any consequences shall be for your own account and risk.
- e) You must notify us of any changes to your personal and bank account information within 24 hours by updating your details online. We are not liable for damage arising from incorrect or incomplete information or that you have not informed us in a timely manner of errors, omissions and/or changes in your personal or bank account information. All damage or losses arising from incorrect or incomplete information are for your own account and risk.
- f) You must not nominate or otherwise authorise any third party to deal through your Account.
- g) We do not allow purchases on margin in any circumstances. You must pay each Gold Bullion invoice by its due date.
- h) When processing a Gold Bullion invoice, you must include the unique Account identification number, or such other identifier provided to you corresponding to your order in the reference or description field of the bank transfer.
- i) You agree that QONECO may, in its absolute discretion, fill your order by arranging for you to buy Gold Bullion from or sell Gold Bullion to a Dealer.

3. Gold bullion dealing

- a) Your orders may be processed through the Online Service. Prior to placing your first order you must familiarise yourself with our procedures and the operation of the Online Service.
- b) We publish offer and bid prices on the Qoneco Website. Prices are updated periodically, as reasonably required by QONECO between Monday 0100 (GMT+2) – Friday 2359 (GMT+2), including on NSW public holidays. It is your sole responsibility to check the Qoneco Website for current updates.

- c) The prices quoted on the Qoneco Website are based on the AUD/GOLD price per ounce quoted by QONECO's Price Feed Provider. However, due to the spread on the product, the conversion of the AUD price into a foreign currency and the conversion of the weight from ounce to grams, the prices we offer you may not be exactly the same as the prices from our Price Feed Provider.
- d) The Allocated Gold Bullion storage format has a minimum Quantity per transaction of 1g of Gold Bullion or as otherwise disclosed on the Qoneco Website from time to time. The Pool Allocated Gold Bullion storage format has a minimum Quantity per transaction as notified from time to time on the Qoneco Website or Online Service.
- e) Your dealings in Gold Bullion are subject to daily limits on the value of buy and sell orders, which QONECO may change from time to time. We will not process orders that exceed the daily limits. For further information on these caps, please contact support on 1300 328 029.
- f) We will only process sell orders from you where the Gold Bullion is stored with QONECO (whether Allocated Gold Bullion or Pool Allocated Gold Bullion). We do not process sales of physical gold stored by you or by third parties.
- g) You acknowledge that we do not provide clearing services and that you are solely responsible and subject to the counterparty risk of dealing in Gold Bullion with all counterparties, including QONECO or its Dealers.
- h) You may only offer to buy or sell Gold Bullion on an 'at market basis'. We do not offer orders known as 'limit' orders.
- i) For payments by credit card, we may lock in a price for you for 10 minutes (or such other duration as determined by QONECO in its sole and absolute discretion) during which you may process and confirm a buy or sell order. Once your offer is accepted, it will result in an agreement to proceed to settlement that may be fully or partially executed on your behalf. If the price of Gold Bullion quoted by the Price Feed Provider at the end of the 10 minute period, as determined in QONECO's sole and absolute discretion, deviates by $\pm 1.00\%$ or more from the Execution Price, we reserve the right to settle based on the price quoted by the Price Feed Provider at that time, resulting in you receiving a new Quantity of Gold Bullion or a new proceeds of sale figure. You agree not to hold us liable for direct or indirect damages, losses or expenses incurred in connection with our right to settle at a different price.
- j) Bank transfers will be processed using the price as at 11am Sydney time on the day the cleared funds are received. Orders to be settled via bank transfers will only be valid as an order once cleared funds are received.
- k) Orders must always contain a limit with regard to the Quantity. The Quantity that you specify is regarded as the maximum weight (Allocated Gold Bullion) or the maximum dollar value (Pool Allocated Gold Bullion) that you wish to deal in. We will attempt to fully realise the maximum weight or value that you have specified. However, we give no guarantee whatsoever and we have the right to reject the order or execute the order partially and by so doing we are not liable to you for any losses, damage, expense or liability in this regard. We will use our best endeavours to execute an Order pursuant to your instructions. However, you acknowledge that every time you issue us with an Order, you bear the risk of a partial execution that may be based on a price or a Quantity different to that specified in the Order.

- l) We will only process your orders to sell Gold Bullion when the specified Quantity of Gold Bullion is stored in your Account and is available to you free from any encumbrance, pledge, hypothecation, lien or other interest.
- m) An order is irrevocable. After placing an order through the Online Service, you will receive a confirmation of receipt of the order. This confirmation does not constitute a binding acceptance of the instruction to execute the order but is merely acknowledgement of receipt of the order. Any losses resulting from incorrect, incomplete, unclear or inaccurate orders or instructions from you are for your account and risk.
- n) We have the sole and absolute discretion to reject, cancel or amend an order if:
 - i. the order is incorrect, incomplete, unclear or inaccurate;
 - ii. the counterparty has indicated they reject the order;
 - iii. a condition for the execution of the order has not been satisfied;
 - iv. the Gold Bullion in your Account is insufficient to execute the order; or
 - v. in our absolute opinion, there are reasons to assume that the execution of the order would violate any applicable laws, regulations or this Agreement.
- o) We will promptly notify you by email of any refusal to execute an order. We are not obliged to detail the grounds of our refusal but may do so out of courtesy. Our discretion to reject orders is absolute and final and you agree it is not subject to a merits review in any forum. We are not responsible or liable for any loss or damage arising from exercise of our rights under this clause. Where the order was placed as a bank transfer payment, the payment shall be refunded net of relevant fees and charges, to the bank account from which the payment came.
- p) Orders are deemed to be received on the Business Day on which we receive the order. If your order is received by us on a day that is not a Business Day, the order will be deemed to have been received on the next Business Day.
- q) We will confirm the execution of an order by email after each execution. The confirmation of an order will result in us sending you an order confirmation by email setting out the Quantity of Gold Bullion that was dealt based on the original order and will state the exact time and price at which the order was executed, the counterparty you executed against and the costs and fees charged.
- r) Subject to clause 3(i), after execution, credit card orders will receive an invoice for settlement, based on the price as at the time the counterparty accepts (as opposed to receives) your order.
- s) For Gold Bullion orders made as bank transfers, the Settlement Price shall be the price as at 11am, Sydney time, on the day the cleared funds are received by QONECO. Bank transfer orders will receive a receipt showing the Quantity of Gold Bullion that will be transacted using the price as at 11am Sydney time on the day of receipt.

- t) For any payment method other than credit card or bank transfer, if the price of Gold Bullion quoted by the Price Feed Provider at or about the time QONECO receives payment from the Customer, as determined in QONECO's sole and absolute discretion, deviates by equal to or greater than 1.00% or more from the Execution Price, the Settlement Price shall be if the Execution Price will be the same as the Settlement Price. Where the price deviates by $\pm 1.00\%$ or more from the Execution Price, we reserve the right to settle based on the price quoted by the Price Feed Provider at that time, resulting in you receiving a new Quantity of Gold Bullion or a new proceeds of sale figure. You agree not to hold us liable for direct or indirect damages, losses or expenses incurred in connection with our right to settle at a different price.
- u) Settlement for a buy order will consist of you settling the invoice issued for the Gold Bullion purchase if settling with credit card. Bank transfer orders need not take any action. On receipt of the funds and subject to any required adjustments as permitted in this Agreement, we will issue you with a Gold Certificate containing a unique Gold Certificate number and your Account name, allowing you to verify your Gold Bullion holding with us. For a valid claim to the Gold Bullion on the Gold Certificate, the Account name and the unique Gold Certificate number must match the same fields in QONECO's internal records.
- v) The Gold Certificate shall correspond with the Quantity of Gold Bullion purchased and represents a discrete unit of Gold Bullion that cannot be sub-divided. For instance, a Gold Certificate for 1kg of Gold Bullion only allows 1kg of Gold Bullion to be sold. You acknowledge and agree that sub-division such as selling 2 x 500g of Gold Bullion under a Gold Certificate for 1kg is prohibited.
- w) Settlement of a sell order will consist of QONECO selling the entire Gold Bullion holding corresponding to the Gold Certificate, such that there are no residual Gold Bullion holdings corresponding to the Gold Certificate.
- x) Payment of the sale proceeds are made by bank transfer using the bank account details you have provided to us.
- y) Failure to receive an email confirming execution may mean the order was not processed and the responsibility is entirely on you to follow up with us as to what has happened.
- z) You may send an online request through Online Services to cancel a non-executed pending order that you have placed which shows the status 'open' in your Account. An order cannot be revoked where it has been accepted or has been even partially executed.
- aa) Non-executed buy or sell orders are automatically cancelled after 3 Business Days from the date they are received (or such other period notified on the QONECO Website from time to time). You will not be notified when orders are cancelled – it is your responsibility to monitor your Account frequently to determine which orders are 'open' on your Account. We are not liable to you for any loss or expense you will suffer or incur as a result of the cancellation of any order.

8. Death

- a) In the event of your death, we must be informed as soon as possible. As long as we have not been informed about your death, we may continue to execute orders previously placed by you or after your death by persons on your behalf. We may continue to execute orders that have been given to us before we have been informed of your death if we could not reasonably have been able to prevent the execution.

- a) We protect your Account by means of a unique username and a confidential password that you must choose yourself. For security reasons, you must change your password regularly and use your best endeavours to ensure that this password cannot be used by third parties.
- b) You are obliged to take all reasonable measures to ensure that your username and confidential password remains confidential and cannot be accessed by third parties. This means that you do not save your username and password on a computer and where you do not memorise your username and password you should always store your username and password separately.
- c) We will not be liable for damage arising from any failure by you to keep your password confidential, that you lose your password or that you choose a password that offers insufficient protection. - d) All payments to and from our website are encrypted and stored by Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard compliant third parties who process these transactions.

10. Fees & charges

- a) The spread is the difference between the buy and sell price quoted by QONECO. We or the Dealers may profit from part or all of the spread which can be calculated at any given time by comparing the bid and offer prices quoted. A spread may be added to the mid-price when dealing in Gold Bullion with us. Different products will have different mark ups, which may be changed from time to time. The spread is already incorporated into the price quoted for the Gold Bullion. Your orders to deal in the Gold Bullion at the price quoted is implicit acceptance to pay QONECO or any Dealer any spread component incorporated into that price.
- b) When converting from a Pool Allocated Gold Bullion storage format to an Allocated Gold Bullion format, you will incur a cost associated with converting the pooled interest into gold bars. You agree to the barring costs as set out in Schedule 3.

- c) Both QONECO and any Dealers may pass on any fees incurred by us by third party providers with respect to credit card or bank transfer fees. We do not profit as a result of these fees which are passed on to you. A list of these fees is contained on our website.
- d) Should the fees and charges become more than 2 months in arrears, we reserve the right to deduct the fees from your Gold Bullion holdings. We may also do so on behalf of any Dealer.

11. Returns, refunds & cancellations

- a) No refunds or returns are applicable once an order has been issued and a contract has been entered into. Please check all your orders before confirming. You shall receive an invoice to your email once your order has been processed.
- b) When you instruct us to buy or sell Gold Bullion, that decision is a final, legal and binding offer. It forms into a contract once your counterparty accepts your offer at which point it becomes a contract enforceable by the laws of Australia. You may not change your mind at this point.

12. AML/CTF & compliance obligations

- a) You must comply at all times with the applicable AML/CTF Act and any applicable laws in your jurisdiction of incorporation or residence and in each jurisdiction in which you operate. You may only make use of our services if and insofar as this is permitted by law in your country. If one or several of our services are not permitted in your country, you are not permitted to make use of these services.
- b) You must verify whether the services offered by us are permitted in your country. We have no obligation to carry out investigations into the legality of our services in your country or to provide information on such. We are entitled to refuse services to you if we consider that our services are not permitted in your country, however we are not obliged to do so.
- c) In the event that you make use of our services while this is not permitted in your country, then all adverse consequences of this are exclusively and wholly of your own account and risk. If we suffer any losses or damage as a result, then you shall be liable for this.
- d) The AML/CTF Act requires us to appropriately identify our Clients. Prior to us providing the Service, you must provide QONECO with any KYC Information requested by us.
- e) We have the right, and are authorised by you, to do everything that is reasonably necessary to verify the information that you have provided and to verify your identity.
- f) By consenting to us collecting the KYC Information or voluntarily providing such documentation to us, you confirm that you are authorised to do so, to enable us to verify your identity, and you consent to us disclosing personal information that you have provided to us to a third party for verification using their systems and services to obtain an assessment of whether that personal information matches information held by various government and other authorities and agencies. The third party may give us a report on that assessment and to do so may access and use personal information about you held by various government and other authorities and use third party systems and services and you consent to such access. We reserve the right to share the results of our or our third party's collection and verification of your personal information with the Dealers.

- g) You agree and consent to us providing your personal information including but not limited to the KYC Information to any Dealer in any jurisdiction for the purpose of them complying with any legal or regulatory obligations they have including any obligations under the AML/CTF Act.
- h) The title, name and address details of your bank account must always be exactly the same as the title, name and address of your Account.
- i) Without being obliged to do so, we have the right, and you authorise us, to do everything that is reasonably necessary to verify that the name in which the bank account is registered is the same as the name in which your Account is registered, as well as to compare information that we receive from your bank to the information that is known to us. You must ensure that your bank cooperates with this. In the event of discrepancies in this information, your account may be blocked.
- j) We do not facilitate third parties acting on or through your Account. This practice is absolutely prohibited.
- k) Fund transfers can only be made by a bank transfer and may not be made by cash or any cheque deposits.
- l) We reserve the sole and absolute discretion to return any funds received from you back to the account from which it came. We may charge you for costs incurred in returning your money and we will not compensate you for any losses incurred as a result.
- m) The Client agrees to cooperate with QONECO or a Dealer to respond to any regulatory request.
- n) We may block your Account based on any grounds we consider reasonable in our discretion including but not limited to in connection with the security of your Account, your unique username or confidential password, or in connection with the suspicion of unauthorised or fraudulent use of your Account. You will be informed if your Account has been blocked, by email. As long as your account is blocked, you will not be able to enter into any transactions. As soon as you satisfy us that the grounds for the block no longer exist, the block will be lifted and you will be informed by email about the lifting of the block.

13. Tax

- a) The taxation consequences of dealing in Gold Bullion depend on your personal circumstances. It is your sole responsibility to comply with any applicable tax obligation.

- b) Any payment made by you to us must be made without any deduction or withholding for any tax or any other reason unless the deduction or withholding is required by applicable law. Should you be required to make any form of deduction in respect of tax from any payment to be made or if we are required to pay any tax in respect of any payment made in relation to this agreement at your request, you agree to keep QONECO indemnified against that tax and you agree to pay to us any additional amounts required to ensure we receive the full net amount that is equal to the amount we would have received had a deduction, withholding or payment of tax not been made.
- c) We give no representation, warranty or guarantee as to the accuracy or completeness of any information or as to the tax consequences of any transaction. Without limitation, we do not accept liability for any adverse tax implications of any transactions whatsoever.

14. Acknowledgements, warranties and representations by client

For the term of this Agreement, the Client acknowledges, warrants and represents that:

- a) You will inform us immediately if you are declared bankrupt;
- b) You acknowledge and accept that dealing with us in Gold Bullion includes but is not limited to price risk (due to fluctuations in Gold Bullion market prices), risk of trading interruptions (where you may be prevented from buying or selling on favourable terms), operational risk (where there may be errors in the way we have dealt with your Gold Bullion), counterparty risk (where the entity you are transacting with fails to settle) and the risk of theft;
- c) You acknowledge that you may not grant any security or any third party interest in or over any Allocated Gold Bullion or Pool Allocated Gold Bullion purchased from and stored with us and any purported grant of any security or any third party interest in or over Allocated Gold Bullion or Pool Allocated Gold Bullion purchased from and stored with us by you at any time is invalid;
